RACE OVER REAL MARATHON DISTANCE IS ARRANGED

Negotiations for Use of Ball Park on April 18
Opened—The Enthusiasm Demands
Another Marathon.

There was only one subject of talk round town yesterday, and that was the Marathon race. So keen is the interest being taken in this form of athletics and so many challenges have been made to the winner, that it has been decided to hold a real Marathon race at the league ball park on April 18.

Negotiations are already under way with the league trustees and there seems to be nothing in the way of obtaining the use of the grounds for the purpose. The idea is to rope off a circular track on the grounds, which would be approximately three laps to the mile and measure off the exact Marathon distance, which is twenty-six miles and three hundred and eighty-five yards.

This will give a chance to find out the exact status of long-distance athletics in Honolulu. Many people think that we have material here that can compare well with the champions such as Hayes, Shrubbs and Longboat, and this will be an opportunity to find out for certain.

Marathon Craze Here.

Sunday's big event has augmented the present Marathon craze to such an extent that many of the contestants and their friends visited this office and literally demanded another race, so that they would have an opportunity to show that their recent experience had taught them how they could beat anybody else on the Islands.

Anybody who has that chance. There has been no time in which to settle the details, but the following has been decided. The race will take place at the league ball park, if possible, on Sunday, April 18. Three splendid cups will be put up for prizes. The one for first prize will cost not less than a hundred dollars, and it is possible that more than twice that amount may be spent on it if conditions accord with a tentative offer that has been made.

An entrance fee of not more than one dollar will be exacted from every contestant in the race, and admission to the grounds will be charged.

The most perfect arrangements for the comfort of contestants will be made, and the experience of the many promoters of Marathon races on the mainland will be used in running the event smoothly in every way.

Each contestant will have a station at the side of the track, where his trainers and rubbers may wait to give him refreshment or rub him down. The dressing-rooms will be arranged so that each runner has a separate place to himself. Rubbing tables and lounges will be provided, and there will be everything to aid the aspiring athlete in his arduous task of running the long distance.

Distance Telegraphs.

At each station there will be a score telegraph bearing the number of the contestant it represents, and as the runner completes a lap, the number of laps he has covered will be posted on the board so that the spectators can see at a glance how far any runner is ahead or behind.

The affair will be arranged with the most careful attention to detail, and, judging by the intense enthusiasm in town, should be an event of such success that last Sunday's race will look like the original thirty cents.

It is not only those who ran last Sunday who are anxious to compete. There are several others who wish to come in and try their speed over the long distance. A runner by the name of Albert Marco comes in with a sweeping challenge to Nigel Jackson or any other runner to race him over the Marathon distance. He is backed by many friends, who believe that he can do the trick, and will have a large following.

Dal Fahy Is Sure.

Dal Fahy is certain that he can beat Jackson. He has one hundred dollars to wager on his chances in the race, and states that, had his leg not given way, he would have caught up with the winner last Sunday.

Another keen one is Paddy Walsh, who is very anxious to have another go over the distance. He feels sure that he can get in such shape that his legs will not go back on him, and wishes to show that his really wonderful performance of last Sunday can be continued as far as the Marathon limit.

Gorman, the St. Louis alumnus, who came in second, will enter the race with great confidence that he can win the next time. Feagler announces his intention of entering and states that he knows how to improve on his recent very excellent showing.

Others who are expected to enter, most of whom have announced their intention of doing so, are Timas, Lopez, Davis, Kepa, Jim Crane, Cockburn, George Nelson, Scharsch, Grace, Lebrun, Sam Hop and D. Mahukona.

Jackson Is Ready.

These, of course, are only a few of those who will enter when the event is arranged for certain. Meanwhile Nigel Jackson announces that he will defend his title against all comers and will start training again tonight.

During the four weeks between now and the date of the race he will follow a close course of training, laid down for him by Billy Woods, who, by the way, assisted him in his training for last Sunday's race and who gave him road advice which, so says Jackson, enabled him to win.

The Marathon enthusiasm is at its height, and this event bids fair to be a big thing in every way, for spectators and contestants alike. Further details will be published as soon as arranged, and the entry list will be open very shortly.

CHOOSE YOUR PRIZES EARLY

The good athletes who ran in the Marathon race have prizes coming to them. As already stated, they will take prizes by choice. Those who came in first have the first choice, naturally, and the other arrivals down the line will take their pick of prizes in turn.

Each man who is entitled to a prize is particularly requested by the committee to help them out by making his choice as early as possible.

Choices are to be made at Wall-Nichols' store to A. K. Vierra. If possible, all those entitled to a prize should get to the store during the noon hour today, so that all may make their choice in turn. As each man makes his choice he will receive an order for the prize he has chosen. Please do your best to help out by getting in early and assisting the committee in this matter.

The following is the list of prizes and the names of those entitled to a

17. Five-dollar meal ticket; Manhattan Restaurant.
18. Five-dollar order on the Kash Company; Jack Seully.
19. Repeating clock; J. Schwartz. (This prize has already been chosen by Mr. Gorman, who has first choice.)

Mr. Arnold, the Punahou coach, is very enthusiastic about the baseball chances of the Oahu College team. Mr. Blanchard, the High School athletic master, is equally confident that his boys will make good and thinks that he has a box of curves ready to hand out to the chosen pitcher.

ASAHI'S DEFEAT SUGAR BOILERS

There was no baseball in town on Sunday but the Asahis traveled out to the Honolulu plantation country and handed it to the Aieas by 7 to 6 in an eleven inning game.

At the end of the fifth inning the Asahi kids were five to the good and it looked like syrup taken from the sugar boilers. But the latter did the buck up act in the sixth and hammered out three. They followed with two in the seventh and one in the eighth but were tied by the visitors in the latter inning. It took three more innings before the game was won and then the Asahis scored one run with three bingles. It was a good fast game all the way through. The ground is a new one and the visitors found it hard to play on a diamond with the pitcher's box way below the level of third base and home plate, but they soon got used to this and feel naturally proud of their victory.

The official score was:

PRESENTATION NEXT SUNDAY

In compliment to the Atkinson and Kalamianale baseball leagues, who so courteously put off their games last Sunday, there will be a big presentation next Sunday at Aala Park after the first game.

Mayor Fern, who acted so well as starter of the two races on Sunday, will be asked to make the presentation of the Haleiwa and Diamond cups and the Art Theater medal to Nigel Jackson, and the Wichman cup to C. Padeken.

It is expected that the band will be in attendance, and this little armistice of the big race will be a tribute to the Mayor, to the runners who took part in the race, and to the baseball leagues who showed the true sporting spirit in postponing their games.

The Marathon committee wishes to express itself strongly with regard to the action of the leagues. The members of the committee feel that each player in the Atkinson and Kalamianale leagues was as instrumental in making the event a success as anybody else who helped in the good work.

Sport Notes

The telegraph operators in the cable office are very enthusiastic over the coming real Marathon race. They state that they know the man who will win. His name will be made known not until the day of the race.

Mr. Bartlett states that the Marathan prize he will give is a mystery. He has steadily refused to tell what he would give, but intimates that the man who chooses his prize will come pretty near getting something good.

There will probably be four teams in the interscholastic senior baseball league this year—Oahu College, High School, Kamehameha Schools and St. Louis College. The latter have raised a great wave of enthusiasm in the baseball line and will have a fine team. Their interclass games on Aala Park were all to the good, and the Fathers have set their seal of approbation on college baseball as a manly and Christian sport.

GOOD BOY, LEBRESCU.

There were three Marines in the Marathon race.
One only arrived on foot.
The other two, "non compos foo-foo," Came in with the big foot too.

But one little man from the Very camp Was there with the great "Arrive." He covered the course like a good old horse, And showed us that he was alive.

Oh, Kid Lebrun, you're surely all right; Ne'er may your shadow diminish. You have made a name for being game As the only Marine to finish.
